Parties have agreed to the following arrangements:

On every Friday, after child's school hours the mother or her representative will take the child to the husband's house at Angamali and hand over the child to her father. Father will return the child to the mother at her house at Kottapadi on every Sunday evening by 5 p.m. In case there is class for the child on Saturday, the child need be handed over on Saturday evening. Both the parties agreed that there will not be any harassment on either side in implementing this order. Child is now brought by the father and she will be handed over to her mother.

Both parties agreed that G.O.P.No.140/2007 pending in Family Court, Ernakulam is also settled in terms of the above settlement.
